"In Flanders Fields"

In Flanders Fields the poppies blow. Between the crosses, row on row. That mark our place, and in the sky The larks, still bravely singing, fly Scarce beard amid the guns below We are the dead. Short days ago We lived. Felt dawn. Saw sunset glow Loved and were loved. And now we lie In Flanders Fields

Take up our quarrel with the foe, To you. from failing hands we throw The torch, be yours to hold it high. If ye break faith with us who die We shall not sleep. though poppies grow In Flanders Fields.

John McCrae

Paul Galbraith Construction

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old. Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn. At the going down of the sun, and in the morning, we will remember them.
